Remember, you must have four members in your team and please do not submit any inappropriate team names.

The practice game is open until 4.30pm on 12 October 2018. The competition then starts on 15 October when all your practice investments are reset and you will start trading with £100,000 of virtual money. The latest date for registration is 16 November; late entrants have their portfolio adjusted up or down following the average movement of the FTSE 100.

Good luck!
